UNION LABEL
MADE IN U.S.A.

THE writer of this is charged by the News with running his legs off trying to do politics with the republicans and also failing in his endeavor. Both of these allegations are quite true.

The Appeal has on several occasions before now, advocated the elimination of politics from the legislative ticket. Its plan has been to have a town meeting and nominate the four members of the legislature irrespective of party, and have them run without any opposition.

By this means we hold that a legislative ticket of representative business men can be secured who will represent the interests of Ormsby county infinitely better than when eight men are nominated who take their chance on election. There are some men who would make excellent representatives who will not accept a nomination if they have to take six weeks away from their business, spend a lot of money and take chances on defeat. The fact that this legislature is liable to make a fight over moving the University to Carson from its undesirable surroundings in Reno was the reason for the writer's attempt to induce the republicans to cooperate with the fusion party in having four men in the legislature who had experience in these matters.

We consider the welfare of the town of Carson and the future of the university as paramount to the success of either legislative ticket. Many level headed republicans were disposed to take kindly to this proposition but there were others whose partisanship blinded them to the interests of the city who strenuously objected and insisted that it would be a "sacrifice of political principals."

The silver men and the democrats were willing to lay aside their partisanship for the interests of Carson City but the republicans absolutely refused or rather the people who run the republican machine in Carson City.

It will be remembered that it was the vote of a republican senator of this county, Hui Parker, who killed the bill moving the university to Carson from Elko. If this fight is lost this session people will know where to place the blame.
